

SARASOTA OPERA GUILD

SPECIAL EVENT

Crooks, Criminals and Meanies in Opera

Presented by Elizabeth Aversa, PhD.

Monday, March 11, 2024 – 4 p.m.

Church of the Redeemer, Gillespie Hall – 222 South Palm Ave.

Free parking on Gulfstream Ave. Please use the courtyard entrance.

Our favorite performing art is full of crooks, criminals, and meanies, and this talk will highlight some of the worst of the worst. We love these characters because we often find them more interesting than the “good guys,” and we envy their willingness to operate outside conventional, accepted expected behaviors. Video clips will illustrate!

RASPUTIN

Elizabeth Aversa is a retired faculty member and dean and is a co-producer of Sarasota Opera. She has held leadership positions at The Catholic University of America, the University of Tennessee, and The University of Alabama. Although her professional career was in library and information sciences, she was “raised on opera,” and has enjoyed it all her life. Elizabeth was educated at Emory University (BA, MLn) and Drexel University (PhD).

Send form and check, made payable to SOG to:

Jodie Myers, 100 The Esplanade N, #2, Venice, FL 34285 | Ph: 248-909-9319

Crooks, Criminals and Meanies in Opera

$30 per person, includes a reception with wine and appetizers presented by Terry Brennan Davis following the program.

Name(s) _____

of reservations _____ @ $30 each = $ _____

If not a Sarasota Opera Guild member please include:

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____

You can also register online with a credit card on our Facebook page.

<https://www.facebook.com/sarasotaoperaguild>