

SARASOTA OPERA GUILD

Opera and Dance: An Uneasy Marriage

Presenter: Joy McIntyre

Monday, October 9, 2023 – 4 p.m.

Church of the Redeemer, Gillespie Hall – 222 South Palm Avenue

From its Baroque beginnings, opera and dance thrived in a loving embrace, each enhancing the other. Both art forms eventually went on separate journeys, but never quite lost sight of each other. As opera forms evolved, composers were, by definition, focused on the glory and compass of the human voice. Yet, many operas still contain delicious moments of dance that are often overlooked. We will look at a few favorites.

A retired opera singer and teacher, Joy McIntyre continues her musical vocation here in Sarasota. She is vice president Sarasota Music Archive; past-president Sarasota Concert Association; past president, SILL; and associate professor emerita, Boston University, CFA.

Please join us for this enlightening program.

Opera and Dance: An Uneasy Marriage – October 9

$20 per person, includes a wine social with refreshments following the program.

Send form and check, made payable to SOG, to:

Ann Waller, 1188 N Tamiami Tr, #401, Sarasota, FL 34236

Name(s) _____

of reservations _____ @ $20 each = $ _____

If not a member please include:

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

You can also register online with a credit card on our Facebook page.