Performances

Orfeo

Music by Claudio Monteverdi
World Premiere Orchestration by Nico Muhly
Libretto by Alessandro Striggio

Don't Look Back!

Legendary lovers, Orfeo and Euridice, face death and separation. They undertake a perilous journey from the underworld back to the world of the living. One rule must be followed: Orfeo cannot look at Euridice. His conviction falters, he turns ...

Directed by Yuval Sharon and conducted by Harry Bicket.

Presented in Italian with projected English text.

Rusalka

Music by Antonín Dvořák
Libretto by Jaroslav Kvapil based on the fairy tales of Karel Jaromír Erben and Božena Němcová

Will she become part of his world?

Rusalka, a young water nymph, falls in love with a prince. The witch gives her a potion that will render her human but take away her voice. Rusalka risks everything for love and ends up paying dearly.

Directed by Sir David Pountney and conducted by Lidiya Yankovskaya.

Presented in Czech with projected English text.

The Flying Dutchman

Music and Libretto by Richard Wagner

Condemned and sailing the stormy seas.

Every seven years, a cursed and ghostly sea captain gets a chance at redemption. He needs a bride to break the curse. Can he find a woman pure of heart, or will he roam the seas eternally?

Directed by David Alden and conducted by Thomas Guggeis.

Presented in German with projected English text.
